

MEMORY SHEET

Search the internet

INTRODUCTION

Why learn how to search the Internet?

- Find useful information for everyday life: restaurants, weather, places to visit.
- Be more independent in everyday life.

SUMMARY

- 1) Open an internet browser and search engine
- 2) Write down the search
- 3) Read the search results
- 4) Practical advice to help you

Open an internet browser or search engine

PHONE

- ✓ Click on an Internet Browser app Icon like :

Google Chrome

Mozilla Firefox

Microsoft Edge

Safari

COMPUTER

- ✓ Find and open an Internet or web browser like:

Google Chrome

Mozilla Firefox

Microsoft Edge

Safari

The most common search engine is Google. You can access it by opening the browser or typing in the bar at the top: www.google.com.

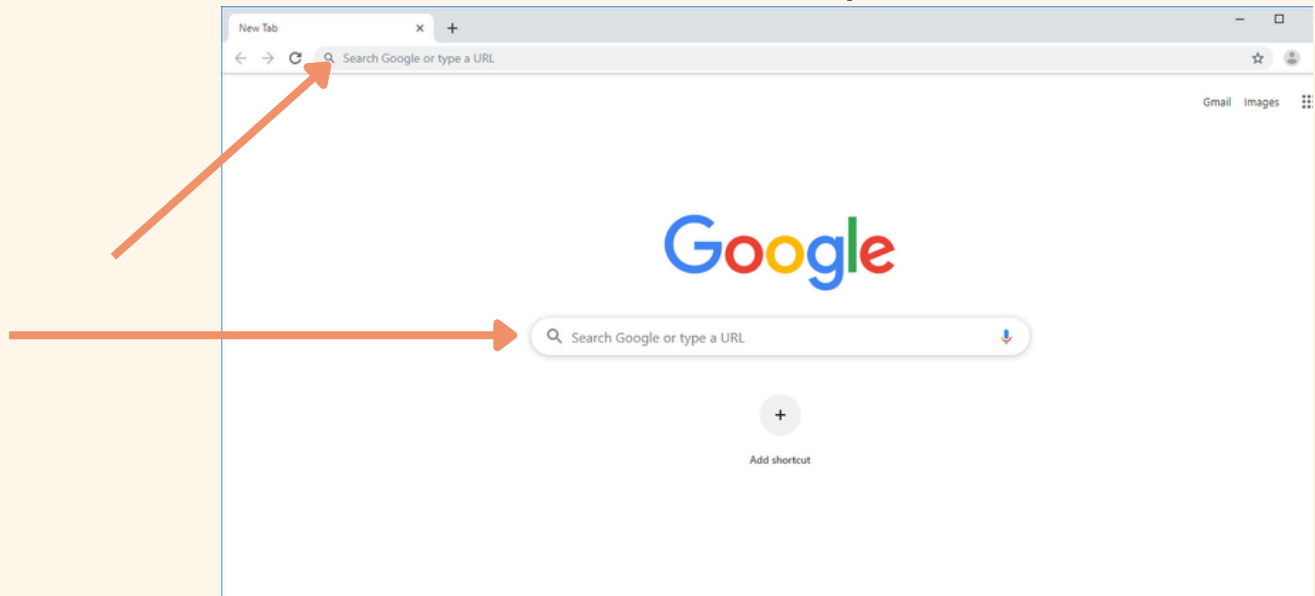

2

Write the search

✓ Locate the search bar to write your search

☞ The search bar is often located at the top or in the middle

✓ Write what you want to search in the search bar.

Be specific with short sentences and simple words

☞ Example: “Restaurant near me” / “Weather today in my city”

✓ Once written, launch the search

☞ either by clicking on the search icon

☞ or by pressing the enter key on the keyboard

Read the search results

☞ Results are displayed as blue links.

✅ Read the titles and short descriptions under each link to find out what the page contains.

✅ Click on the link that best matches what you are looking for.

☞ If the first page doesn't have the information you want, scroll down or click on another link.

☞ To do a new search, click in the search bar, delete the old text and type a new search

Practical advice for better navigation

✓ Be aware of advertisements: they often appear at the very top or on the side, and are indicated by the word "Ad".

👉 Only trust well-known or official sites (such as those ending in .gouv.fr, .org...)

✓ Never give your personal information (card number, passwords, etc.) on a unfamiliar site.

✓ If you can't find what you are looking for: Try rephrasing the search with other words.

✓ The site link you click on does not appear :
Check your internet connection or go back and try another link.
