The screenshot shows the Microsoft Store interface for the WhatsApp application. At the top, the Microsoft logo is on the left, and navigation links for Store, Home, Apps, Games, and About are in the center. A search bar on the right contains the text "Search apps, games, and more". Below the navigation bar, the WhatsApp app card is displayed, featuring the WhatsApp logo, the name "WhatsApp", the developer "WhatsApp Inc.", and a blue "Download" button. The app card is set against a background image of people using the app. Below the app card, the "Description" section is visible, starting with the heading "Description". The text describes WhatsApp as a 100% free messaging app from Meta, used by over 2B people in more than 180 countries. It highlights features like end-to-end encryption and no subscription fees. A "Read less" link is at the bottom of the description. Below the description is the "Ratings and reviews" section, which shows a large "4.7" rating with "2,020 RATINGS" below it. To the right of the rating is a horizontal bar chart showing the distribution of star ratings from 1 to 5. Below the rating, a review snippet is shown: "5.0 ★ Having the app on the laptop is a game changer", followed by the text "Having WhatsApp on my laptop has been a game changer. It is particularly helpful for saving photos/screenshots, that can be used for presentations etc." and the date "Dee, 9/24/2025". At the bottom right of the review section are icons for likes (1) and replies (0), and a "Read more" link.
